

Week 1	What's being tested?
shipped myth touch expectation actually treasure fixture explosion optician ceiling inoperable incredible possession scene enough	Using the –ed suffix; understanding when to double the consonant. Words in which the ‘i’ sound is spelt ‘y’. Words in which the ‘u’ sound is spelt ‘ou’. The –ation suffix. The –ly suffix. Words ending –sure. Words ending –ture. Understanding when to use –cian, -ssion, tion, sion. Understanding when to use –cian, -ssion, tion, sion. ‘i’ before ‘e’ except after ‘c’ when the sound is ‘ee’. The in-prefix; understanding when to use –able, -ible. The in-prefix; understanding when to use –able, -ible. Understanding when to use –cian, -ssion, tion, sion. The ‘s’ sound spelt ‘sc’. The ‘ough’ letter string

Week 2	What's being tested?
mountainous incredible importance pleasure structure reflection division evidence weight adaptable chatted stripping misinform gnome thorough	The –ous suffix (these words are always adjectives). The –ible suffix. Understanding when to use –ance , –ence. Words ending –sure. Words ending –ture. Understanding when to use –cian, -ssion, tion, sion. Understanding when to use –cian, -ssion, tion, sion. Understanding when to use –ance , –ence. The ‘a’ sound spelt ‘eigh’. Understanding when to use the –able, -ible. Using the –ed suffix; understanding when to double the consonant. Using the –ing suffix; understanding when to double the consonant. The mis- prefix. Silent letters. The ough letter tring.

Week 3	What's being tested?
through impartial special normally illegal disbelieving tongue unique precious infectious knife young inflation presumably terribly	The ough letter string. Understanding when to use –tial, -cial. Understanding when to use –tial, -cial. The –ly suffix. The il- prefix. The dis- prefix; drop the ‘e’ add ‘ing’ Words ending –gue. Words ending –que. Understanding when to use –cious, -tious (these words are adjectives). Understanding when to use –cious, -tious (these words are adjectives). Silent letters. Words in which the ‘u’ sound is spelt ‘ou’. The –ation suffix. Understanding when to use –ably, -ibly. Understanding when to use –ably, -ibly.

Week 4	What's being tested?
discussion	Understanding when to use –cian, -ssion, tion, sion.
emergency	Understanding when to use –ency, -ancy.
architect	The 'k' sound spelt 'ch'.
closure	Words ending –sure.
scented	The 's' sound spelt 'sc'.
moisture	Words ending –ture.
unique	Words ending –que.
automatic	The auto- prefix.
crypt	Words in which the 'i' sound is spelt 'y'.
beginning	Double the consonant, add –ing.
trouble	Words in which the 'u' sound is spelt 'ou'.
neighs	The 'a' sound spelt 'eigh'.
disallowed	The dis- prefix; the –ed suffix.
official	Understanding when to use –cial, -tial.
essential	Understanding when to use –cial, -tial.

Week 5	What's being tested?
magician	Understanding when to use –cian, -ssion, tion, sion.
league	Words ending –gue.
profession	Understanding when to use –cian, -ssion, tion, sion.
chemist	The 'k' sound spelt 'ch'.
subtraction	Understanding when to use –cian, -ssion, tion, sion.
invisible	Understanding when to use –ible, -able.
enough	The ough letter string.
spacious	Understanding when to use –cious, -tious.
nutritious	Understanding when to use –cious, -tious.
improper	The im- prefix.
inspiration	The –ation suffix.
descending	The 's' sound spelt 'sc'; the –ing suffix.
explosion	Understanding when to use –cian, -ssion, tion, sion.
dangerous	The –ous suffix (these words are always adjectives).
technique	The 'k' sound spelt 'ch'; words ending –que.

Week 6	What's being tested?
receive	'i' before 'e' except after 'c'.
plaque	Words ending –que.
consistency	Understanding when to use –ancy, -ency.
misplaced	The prefix mis-.
practically	Words ending –ly.
electrician	Understanding when to use –cian, -ssion, tion, sion.
hesitancy	Understanding when to use –ancy, -ency.
immature	The im- prefix.
double	Words in which the 'u' sound is spelt 'ou'.
deceived	'i' before 'e' except after 'c'; the –ed suffix.
chiming	Drop the 'e' add '-ing'.
disagree	The dis- prefix.
neighbour	The 'a' sound spelt 'eigh'.
vein	The 'a' sound spelt 'ei'; homophones.
borough	The ough letter string.